

The Security and Protection that Comes from Trusting in God Psalm 91

- A. The Condition of Security and Protection. 91:1-2
  - 1. Abiding in the presence of God. 1
  - 2. Making God one's total security. 2
- B. The Blessings of Resting in God. 91:3-8
  - 1. Deliverance from man and plague. 3
  - 2. Intimate protection coming from God and His character. 4
  - 3. Freedom from fear of invasion. 5
  - 4. Freedom from fear of disease. 6
  - 5. Miraculous preservation. 7
  - 6. Viewing the demise of the wicked. 8 (See Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 20:7-10)
- C. The Blessings of Making God One's Home. 91:9-13
  - 1. A safe dwelling. 9-10
  - 2. Protection by God's angels. 91:11-12 (Remember even Jesus did not put God to the test – Matt. 4:5-7.)

- 3. Protection from animals. 91:13
- D. God's Personal Promise of Protection. 91:14-16
  - 1. Deliverance. 14
  - 2. Answer to prayer. 15
  - 3. Long life and salvation. 16
- E. Some Additional Perspective
  - 1. We should live our lives in Psalm 91.
  - 2. We must remember differences between the Old Testament (physical blessings for Israeli obedience; physical curses for disobedience – Deut. 27-28) and the New Testament (tribulation – John 16:33).
  - 3. Commitment to God can never be conditional. Dan. 3:17-18
  - 4. In this life there are many deliverances. Heb. 11:32-35a
  - 5. But there are also many hardships. Heb. 11:35b-38
  - 6. In the long term, God will make good on every one of these promises! Rev. 21:1-22:5

God always takes care of His children. But you have to trust His plans and His timing.
