

Who Gets the Blessing?

Genesis 27

A. The Early History of Jacob and Esau. Genesis 25:24-34

1. Review: What did God predict would happen to Rebekah's twin sons? (25:23)

2. Esau was born first. How would you describe him? (25:25) _____

3. What was Jacob doing when he emerged from his mother's womb? (25:26) _____

4. What was Esau good at? (25:27) _____
5. How would you describe Jacob? (25:27) _____
6. Whom did Isaac love, and why? (25:28) _____
7. Whom did Rebekah love? (25:28) _____
8. This sounds like trouble. What happens in a family when one child or the other is a favorite? _____

9. How did Jacob acquire the birthright ¹ that belonged to the oldest son? (25:29-34)

10. How does the writer of Hebrews describe Esau? (Heb. 12:16-17) _____

11. Jacob seems to have had a much greater appreciation for spiritual realities, and for obtaining God's blessing than Esau did. But Jacob was also a schemer. This would come back to haunt him in his later life.

¹ Gen. 25:31-34 - birthright: The "birthright" was the privilege of being chief of the tribe and head of the family (27:29). In Isaac's family, it entitled the bearer to the blessing of Yahweh's promise (27:4, 27-29), which included the possession of Canaan and covenant fellowship with God (28:4). It also included a double portion of the inheritance (Deut. 21:17), and the privilege of being the priest (spiritual leader) of the family. (Nahum Sarna, Understanding Genesis, p. 185.)
